

Beaver County, ss:

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,

Protectorate.

This 2^d day of April A.D. 1888,

Swear and subscribe in open Court,

I, John McNamee, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and within the same, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the United States he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

I, John McNamee, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and within the same, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the United States he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

I, John McNamee, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and within the same, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the United States he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

I, John McNamee, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and within the same, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the United States he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

I, John McNamee, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and within the same, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the United States he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

I, John McNamee, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and within the same, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the United States he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

I, John McNamee, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and within the same, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the United States he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

I, John McNamee, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and within the same, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the United States he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.

I, John McNamee, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the limits and under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and within the same, do swear that the petitioner has resided within the United States he has behaved as a man of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution, and well disposed to the good order and happiness of the same.